Socioeconomic Traits These university-focused communities across metros and suburbs include many students, recent immigrants, and degree holders. Most work part-time nearby in service or government jobs, rent multifamily or campus housing, and live in both large and smaller cities.	Socioeconomic Traits Primarily in city outskirts and suburbs, this fast-growing segment includes educated young adults, many foreign-born. They work in diverse industries, earn upper-tier incomes, and live in newer homes with multiple vehicles.	Socioeconomic Traits Residents in this segment are educated, dual-income earners living in metro areas. They own older homes, often single-family or attached, with low vacancies despite above-average rents and moderate home values.
