Property Overview

We are excited to present qualified investors with an exceptional opportunity to acquire a retail portfolio of three (3) strip center properties, available individually, located in Bristol, VA (Kingsport MSA), featuring ideal shopping center sites that include frontage directly on Interstate-81 (55,000 vehicles per day) and locations right next to a Walmart Supercenter-Sam's Club-anchored power center.

Linden Place Shopping Center includes two tenants, Harper Aesthetics and El Rancho Senior Mexican restaurant, which are successful, regional tenants with proven track records. The Harper Aesthetics high-net-worth operator has 7 locations under the Hopkins Medical Association banner and El Rancho Senior operates 5 restaurants in the chain and their new lease includes a personal guaranty.

The Old Bakery Shopping Center features a GSA lease to the Armed Forces Career Center and Space Apes Help & CBD, with a 1,347 vacancy that provides substantial upside as a value-add component. The inclusion of the third property, the former T-Mobile single-tenant vacant building, allows for opportunistic returns to a retail investor/developer.

This is a rare opportunity to purchase a recently renovated, multi-tenant retail investment portfolio on prime real estate that is 56.9% occupied in a high-demand market, offering investors long-term cash flow and potential for significant returns.

The Tri-Cities Area

(Johnson City-Kingsport-Bristol)

Nestled in the scenic Appalachian Highlands, the Tri-Cities region—comprising Bristol, Kingsport, and Johnson City—offers a dynamic blend of small-town charm, rich history, and a thriving economy. This interconnected metropolitan area provides a strong business climate and a high quality of life, attracting both residents and investors. With a combined population exceeding 500,000, the Tri-Cities serves as a regional hub for commerce, healthcare, education, and tourism. Its strategic location with access to Interstates 26 and 81, makes it a prime destination for business expansion, tourism, and quality living further enhancing its appeal for businesses and residents alike.

Bristol: Birthplace of Country Music & Racing Capital

Bristol holds a special place in the hearts of music lovers worldwide, earning its reputation as the “Birthplace of Country Music.” In 1927, the famous Bristol Sessions were recorded in the downtown area, marking the beginning of modern country music. Visitors can explore this rich history through the Birthplace of Country Music Museum, and the city’s State Street is dotted with murals and monuments that celebrate this musical legacy.

The city is also home to the legendary Bristol Motor Speedway (BMS), one of the world’s most iconic NASCAR tracks. With a seating capacity of over 150,000, BMS hosts major NASCAR Cup Series events in April and August, drawing fans from across the nation and the globe.

Beyond racing and music, Bristol's downtown is a thriving cultural hub, offering a mix of entertainment, shopping, and dining. As a Certified Main Street Community, it continues to evolve with new businesses, restaurants, and offices, creating a lively atmosphere for both residents and visitors.

Near Downtown, the Hard Rock Café & Casino Bristol recently opened to widespread acclaim attracting headliner musical country starts from across the country. There are only 5 casinos currently allowed in Virginia and this one that just launched in 2024 is the first one to open.

Kingsport: A Thriving Industrial & Outdoor Destination

As one of the economic powerhouses of the Tri-Cities, Kingsport is home to a strong industrial, healthcare, and education sector. The city is anchored by major employers like Eastman Chemical Company, a Fortune 500 company, and Ballad Health, one of the region's largest healthcare providers. With a thriving manufacturing and logistics industry, Kingsport serves as a key economic driver in Northeast Tennessee.

Outdoor enthusiasts enjoy the city's natural beauty and recreation, with destinations like Bays Mountain Park & Planetarium, one of the largest city-owned parks in the U.S., offering hiking, biking, and wildlife viewing. The Kingsport Greenbelt provides miles of scenic walking and biking trails connecting neighborhoods, parks, and business districts.

Kingsport also boasts a vibrant downtown scene, featuring locally owned restaurants, breweries, and retail shops. Annual events such as Fun Fest, one of the largest summer festivals in the region, bring the community together for concerts, food, and entertainment.

Johnson City: A Hub for Education, Healthcare & Innovation

As the largest city in the Tri-Cities, Johnson City is a dynamic center for higher education, healthcare, and entrepreneurship. It is home to East Tennessee State University (ETSU), a major institution that drives economic growth, research, and cultural contributions in the region. ETSU's Quillen College of Medicine and Bill Gatton College of Pharmacy provide advanced medical education, supporting a growing healthcare industry.

Johnson City also features a booming downtown district, with a mix of historic architecture, craft breweries, boutique shopping, and a thriving arts scene. The revitalized Founders Park and King Commons serve as popular gathering spaces for concerts, festivals, and outdoor activities.

Outdoor recreation is a cornerstone of Johnson City's appeal, with proximity to the Cherokee National Forest, Watauga Lake, and the Appalachian Trail. Locals and visitors enjoy world-class hiking, fishing, and boating within minutes of downtown.
